

Ea Rosa pulchra est...

Julia Scavo Formation Conseil · Dienstag, 17. Juli 2018

Riesling 2017 Berg und Meer++, Niederoesterreich

Nose is pronounced, offering white flowers, citrus, stony notes together with some citrus peel, green apple and herbal hues. Some honey touch come further on, as the wine breathes. Medium sweet, large and dense, showing vivid acidity, silky texture. A grapy style, the palate gives off apple, honey, white flowers and lots of citrus, zests, finishing with pleasant spicy bitterness. Long. Can develop through the next 4-5 years, ready for a decade of cellarability. Crab, mango and foie gras millefeuille.

Grüner Veltliner Ried Hintern Dorf 2017 Weinviertel DAC
Nose is delicate and airy, showing herbal notes of tarragon, aniseed, green peppercorn, interlaced with a touch of grapefruit and some fresh asparagus. Palate is dry, some CO2 present enhances the medium acidity, through the smooth, creamy texture. Spicy, zesty, peppery, as refreshing as a juicy grapefruit and having noble bitterness lingering on the finish. 3-4 ans to better temper its personality. Marchfeld asparagus, grapefruit, avocado beranise.

Grüner Veltliner Ried Königsberg - Roggendorf 2017

Niederösterreich

Nose is intense, both citrusy and herbal, also getting some some stony notes intertwined with apple and grapefruit. Clean and dry palate, with crispy medium plus acidity integrated in the silky texture. Typically peppery, zesty, with a hint of CO2. Flavours range from apple to grapefruit. The long finish lingers with zests and white pepper. Savoury, this should be enjoyed over the 4-5 years or more. Marinated trout with Granny Smith Jelly.

Gemischter Satz 2017 Niederösterreich

Nose is light and pleasant, showing stone fruit, peach combiend witrh apple and pear notes on seducing flowery background. Some citrus evoking both lemon and lemon peel.

Palate is dry, acidity is medium plus, melting into the juicy and silky mouthfeel. A fruity and zesty profile, with peach and lemon peel hints, some acacia lingering on the salivating finish. Enjoy while juvenile, a harmonious wine to pair with crayfish in citrusy clear soup.

Grüner Veltliner Ried Königsberg - Roggendorf Weinviertel DAC Reserve

Nose is discreet, with lactic aromas combined with light herbal hues such as fennel, aniseed, as well as ripe apple. Large, dense, creamy, with apple and citrus notes, acidity medium plus, a generous, spicy palate still fresh and balanced, with long finish lingering with fennel, dill and zests. Savoury, salivating, can last through 5 years and more. Veal tartare with apple chutney and dill.

Gelber Muskateller 2017 Niederoesterreich

Pronounced, aromatic, with subtle balsamic, terpenic zests interlaced with ripe peach and orange peel. Off-dry, a hint of CO₂ that boosts the supple acidity, of light body, with lots of personality, highly aromatic but subtle. Seductive flavour profile on the palate, gathering orange peel, tangerine notes, peach and aromatic herbs, with roses hues lingering on the finish. Drink youthful to take advantage of its bounty, enjoy with asparagus puff pastry and "maltaise" sauce.

Sauvignon Blanc 2017 Niederoesterreich

Discreet, with a hint of reduction, the wine needs a breath. Asparagus, boxhedge, grapefruit come along soon and reveal the varietal character. Dry, with medium plus acidity, generous, its texture is lean and silky, with some CO₂ present. Finish is long, herbal, the flavour profile gathers again asparagus, green pepper, grapefruit zest.

Sauvignon Blanc 2017 ZT Niederoesterreich

Delicate, creamy, with lactic notes, the nose then reveals peach and some grapefruit. Palate is dry, rich, smooth, with mastered maturing influence. The acidity is melting into the mellow texture, the flavours range from cream to herbal hues, some slight zesty bitterness, lingering with peppercorn and some stony touch make a long finish. A generous, full-bodied wine, to enjoy or keep over the next 5-6 years. Danube salmon in creamy sabayone, parsnip mousseline with citrus zests.

Pinot Blanc/ Chardonnay Reserve 2015 O.T. Niederoesterreich

Nose is creamy, peachy, combining delicacy and intensity, through notes of with flowers, mainly acacia with some honey glints. Palate is dry, large, dense. Acidity is medium, with mastered oakiness, adding creamy texture, spices and body. The alcohol is generous and spicy, the flavours intense and the finish is long with honey and flowery notes. Burgundy style, in a rich way. 5-6 years to develop, up to 10-12 years of potential. Slow cooked qual, sweet potatoes with roasted hazelnuts and veal jus.

Ea Rosa Pulchra est 2017 Niederoesterreich

Intense petal rose colour. Nose is pronounced and flavoured, with scents of freshly cut roses and redcurrants, pomegranate, red apple. The palate is dry, medium plus acidity, alcohol is generous and feels spicy. The texture is lean and satin-like, some medium tannins together with a slight bitternes bring body. The wine is intense, flavoured, combining flower notes and herbal aromas, on spicy background with a hint of juicy, redcurrant. Pure enjoyment, in its prime, beautiful conclusion to my tasting.